Two Kinds and Four Sub-Types of Misconceived Knowledge, Ways to Change It, and the Learning Outcomes

Michelene (Micki) T. H. Chi
Professor, MLF Teachers College
Arizona State University
Monday, October 8, 2012, 10–11:30 am
Pacific Hall 3500

New Technologies and the Challenges of Particularity and Generality in Depicting and Discussing Teaching

Daniel Chazan
Professor, Dept. of Teaching and Learning, Policy and Leadership & Center for Mathematics Education, University of Maryland
Monday, October 22, 2012, 10–11:30 am
NSB Auditorium (Natural Sciences Building)

Visual Representations in Science Education

Michelle Cook
Associate Professor, Teacher Education
Clemson University
Monday, November 5, 2012, 10–11:30 am
NSB Auditorium (Natural Sciences Building)

New Materialistic Ontologies in Mathematics Education: The Body In/Of Mathematics

Elizabeth de Freitas
Associate Professor, Curriculum and Instruction, School of Education Adelphi University

Nathalie Sinclair
Professor, Faculty of Education
Simon Fraser University
Monday, November 26, 2012, 10–11:30 am
NSB Auditorium (Natural Sciences Building)