Governance

Governance in Mexicali and the Imperial Valley

Glen Sparrow
San Diego State University

Tonatiuh Guillén Lopez
Colegio de la Frontera Norte

Outline

I. Introduction
   A. Explanation of the national forms of governance—federalism—and how it affects state and local governance
   B. Explanation of state forms of governance

II. Local government—structure and intergovernmental relationships
   A. County
   B. Cities
   C. Special districts
   D. Municipalities—Mexico

III. Regional bodies
   A. Council of Governments

IV. Service delivery
   A. Services
   B. Civil service

V. Finance
   A. Taxes
   B. Fees
   C. Intergovernmental transfers

VI. Politics
   A. Political parties
   B. Elections
   C. Term limits
   D. Interest groups
VII. Transborder Governance
   A. Boundary spanning
   B. Growth and identification of binational public organizations
      1. International Boundary and Water Commission (IBWC)
      2. EPA, Border XXI

VIII. NAFTA related boundary spanning organizations
   A. Border Environment Cooperation Commission (BECC)
   B. North American Development Bank (NADBank)

IX. Governing the Imperial Valley–Mexicali region

X. Conclusions